The Genesis Players opened their theatrical season with a drama titled "And Then They Came for Me: Remembering the World of Anne Frank."

"I wanted something different and challenging," stated Mrs. Cathy Nelson, theater director. Challenging it was, and the cast and crew visited Spertus Institute of Jewish Studies to prepare for the production.

The drama, by James Still, was shared with audiences by the use of videotaped interviews of Holocaust survivors, Eva Geiringer and Helmut (Ed) Silverburg, while actors reenacted scenes from their lives on stage.

Alaine Bernat, Mutti Geiringer; David Tribby, Pappy Geiringer; Nick Kidwell, Ed Silverburg; Seth Bright, Mr. Silverburg; Megan Mason, Mrs. Silverburg; Amanda Uñate, Anne Frank; and Chaz Geirtz, Nazi youth. Extras were used as prisoners and Nazi soldiers. Amy Sivak and Ashley Lear, with the help of Kaitlyn Hancock, assisted as stage managers. Jeff Wozniak and Jason Keller provided lighting for the show.

Different from past shows, the set, both harsh and abstract, extended into the audience. Those closest to the stage were only two feet from the actors.

The Homecoming dances, sponsored by the Booster Club with Student Council, were a great time for all HHS students even though HHS lost both Homecoming games. The Football Homecoming Dance took place in the middle

Andrean's McCormack takes over as head coach

Coming from Andrean High School, Coach Wally McCormack led the varsity football team after the resignation of Coach Charlie Boston. Also joining Coach McCormack was Coach Mike Pickett. After leaving the Duneland Conference, the football team joined the Lake Athletic Conference, ending its campaign 3-6 overall and 3-4 in the LAC.

The Brickies ended their season in the final round of sectionals, where they took another loss this season to Lowell. Hobart beat Highland, the first sectional game, 27-25. Then the Brickies went on to dominate over Kankakee Valley 44-9.

Pope, defensive most valuable player, and team most valuable player; Mark Drobac, offensive back and offensive most valuable player; Brandon Smith, mental attitude; Ryan Vaclavick, scout offensive; Richard Mitchell, scout defense; Matt Glover, highest GPA; and Tim Johnson, most improved.

Making all conference were Brandon Smith, Mark Drobac, T.J. Pope, JR Gniadek, Mitch Smith, Kevin Lafortune, Tim Johnson, and Mike Vode, while Matt Glover and Chris Morgan also made Academic All State.

Cross Country

Girls' team advances to semi-state for 2nd year

Out of 20 participating teams, the girls' cross country placed 14th at the New Prairie semi-state. Although they didn't run with a full squad throughout the season, the girls managed to succeed against the odds and advance to semi-state for the second year in a row.

Awards were received by Melissa Plesac, Most Valuable Player; Mallary Williams, Most Improved; and Kristina Heineke, Mental Attitude.

As a team, boys' cross country placed sixth at sectionals, just one place shy of advancing to regionals. However, Senior Joe Elizondo and Freshman Matt Abner placed high enough to advance to regionals.

Awards were received by Joe Elizondo, Most Valuable Player; Will Kamizeles and Brian Bowman, Mental Attitude; Matt Abner, Most Improved; Justin Allen, Pride-Hustle-Desire.

Stretching before a meet are Junior Kristina Heinecke and Sophomore Melissa Plesac.

Teams get new coaches

The girls were welcomed at the beginning of the season by an entirely new coaching staff. Many things were changed from the earlier years, but the girls worked hard to overcome the transitions. Varsity coach, Ms. Lauren Smith, commented many times during the season that the girls had to learn in one year, what many other teams got to learn in four.

The varsity volleyball team ended its season with a record of 12-17, after losing to Chesterton in the Chesterton sectionals. The girls also tied for third in the Blue Division of the Lake Athletic Conference, with a record of 4-3.

The team had six seniors, with Hailey Silich, Kelly Sobiski, and Martha Lams appointed as captains.

The highlight of the season was the game against Griffith. The Lady Bricks were down two games at the beginning, but stepped up in the third and came back to beat Griffith in five games. Most of the team members will agree that the Griffith game was the most intense game they had played all season. Another memory that won't be forgotten was the pasta party at Coach Smith's house before sectionals.

Invictus

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole.
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutches of circumstance
I have not winced, nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade.
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll.
I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul.

William Ernest Henley

With much love,
Dad, Mom & Lucas!

Stacy,
I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance,
I hope you dance.
Love, Mom, Dad, Sarah, Steven & Samantha

Congratulations

Megan,

May God give you...
For every storm, a rainbow,
For every tear, a smile,
For every care, a promise,
And a blessing in each trial,
For every problem life sends,
A faithful friend to share,
For every sigh, a sweet song,
And an answer for each prayer.

We love you so much, and you
make us very proud to say you are our daughter.

Love, Mom, Dad and Kyle
